

Uniquely Nautical™

Distinctive Nautical Décor & Gifts for Discriminating Tastes®
An activity of Flagship Business Group LLC, a Florida corporation

Comparison: Chelsea Clocks Ship's Bell vs. Shipstrike

Shared Features:

- Forged (not cast or stamped) solid brass cases
- Sounds “eight bells” at 4, 8 & 12 o’clock
- Famous Chelsea craftsmanship

Features Comparison:	Chelsea Ship's Bell Clocks	Shipstrike Clocks
Clock Movement:	Mechanical/8-Day Winding – Patented Design w/over 360 component parts.	Quartz – German-made precision automatic (battery powered) non-winding.
Sound:	Rich, mellow. From strike arm mechanically hitting Chelsea-patented internal brass bell.	Electronically generated bell sounds.
Clock Dials:	Solid brass plate, hand silvered with acid-etched, enameled numerals.	Machined aluminum plate with etched numerals.
Warranty:	5 Year	2 Year

NOTE: The Chelsea Clock Company is the oldest clock manufacturer in the U.S. The company's lineage of building its highest quality clocks began in 1884 and continues to this day. Famous Chelsea Clock owners have included Presidents Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, Ford, Reagan, & Geo. H.W. Bush; Bob Hope; Aristotle Onassis. Chelsea Clocks was the official supplier of clocks to US Navy during World War II.

Member

www.uniquelynautical.com

16007 Gulf Boulevard, Redington Beach, FL 33708 ☎ (727) 394-8978 ☎ E-Mail: info@uniquelynautical.com