Captain Morgan Loved Drinking his Rum …

While seated in front of a beautiful table adorned with chart art depicting the places he'd plundered and the waterfront bars he'd haunted. As he enjoyed his "daily ration," the Captain marveled at the beauty and sophistication of wooden chart art while, as usual, surrounded by a bevy of lovely bar wenches.

Today's sailors (and anyone else) can share Captain Morgan's experience and enjoy the gallery of nautical charts made from the finest woods – each a work of fine art, proudly presented by Uniquely Nautical

Available for any body of water – worldwide (as long as there's a chart or map of the area available.) Personalized to highlight your own home, boat, favorite venues, family history or cruising adventures. Each piece of chart art is hand-finished, just the way ancient sailors carved and finished their fine woodworkings to pass their time at sea.
